

UW Medicine

Bias Reporting Tool

Who can report?

Any member of the UW Medicine community

What can I report?

This tool is for formally reporting incidents of racism, gender or sexual harassment, bullying, or other negative biases, and any behavior that does not reflect the respect and support expected in all areas of our community.

If you have experienced or witnessed incidents that adversely affect the learning, teaching, working, or healing of others, we encourage you to report it.

When I report, what happens?

A member of our Bias Incident Response Team will contact you to learn more and determine next steps with you.

How do I report?

Scan the QR code here or visit <https://depts.washington.edu/hcequity/bias-reporting-tool/> for more information

